Numb. 9612. 145

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 24, to Saturday August 28, 1756.

Whitehall, August 28, 1756.

A Letter ſigned E. F. and dated the 21ſt Inſtant, was put into the Earl of Holderneſſe's Hands, by the Noble Lord to whom it was directed. The Contents of it have met with the moſt ſerious Attention; and the Continuance of that Gentleman's Correſpondence is earneſtly deſired by the Earl of Holderneſſe; to whom he will pleaſe for the Future to direct his Letters.

Conſtantinople, July 17. On Sunday the 4th Inſtant, at Ten of the Clock at Night, a Fire broke out in a Quarter of the Town called Jubalee, among ſome Jews, which continued burning until the 6th, at Ten in the Morning. From a ſmall Beginning, perhaps for Want of proper Attention being given at the firſt, it extended itſelf, by the Riſing of a high Wind, to ſeveral different Places at once, ſo as to prevent all Efforts to ſtop its Progreſs. Every one allows, that one third Part of the City is deſtroyed, and many make it near a Half. It is ſaid that no ſuch Fire has happened ſince the Reign of Sultan Amurath. It travers'd the largeſt Breadth of the Town, from one Side of the Water to the other, and ſtopt near the Wall of the City towards the Seven Towers. Five hundred Corn-Mills and Ovens were burnt, and the Publick Exchange, where the Arms were ſold, with the old Chambers of the Janizaries: Several Moſques are damaged. The publick Scharſhees, or publick Magazines for all Kinds of Merchandize, were fortunately preſerved. The Grand Seignor diſtributed 16 Zequins to every Janizary burnt out, and the head Cuſtomer is ordered to rebuild the Apartments of the Janizaries. The Sultan obliged every Inhabitant, who had ſpare Houſes or Rooms, to take in the Diſtreſs'd. The preſent Occupation of the Miniſtry is to re-eſtabliſh the Corn-Mills, and ſecure Plenty. Strict Watch has been kept to preſerve Order and Regularity. Since the Fire, there has been ſome Changes. On the 9th the Janizar Aga was removed from that Poſt to the Paſchalyck of Cognia: The Cheaia has been alſo depoſed, and ſucceeded by one Huſſein Aga, of an old Family of this City, who has paſſed through ſeveral Employs. The Coul Cheaia, or Lieutenant General of the Janizaries, is made Aga. Other Changes were expected, but none have hitherto happened. The late Cheaia is made Jeſter Emini, or Keeper of the Archives.

Turin, Aug. 11. M. Andrada, late Miniſter from the King of Portugal to the Court of Rome, paſſed through this City in his Way to the Hague, where he is going to reſide with the ſame Character.

Venice, Aug. 13. This Republick has made Count Tartanea of Udine, lately in the Service of the Empreſs Queen of Hungary, Brigadier General and Super-Intendant of the Artillery. Ali Effendi, Envoy Extraordinary from the Bey of Tripoli to the Imperial Court, arrived here on Monday laſt with eighteen Perſons in his Retinue, and proceeds for Vienna To-morrow by Way of Trieſte.

Bruſſels, Aug. 24. Every Thing continues in the ſame Situation upon our Frontiers; and the Letters from France contain nothing remarkable this Day, but the Diſputes between the French King and the Parliament of Paris, who have refuſed to regiſter the King's three Declarations of the 16th of July, for levying an additional Twentieth Penny, and ſome other new Impoſitions, as being too burthenſome for the People; on which Occaſion the King had taken the Reſolution to hold a Lit de Juſtice, and ordered the Parliament to repair to Verſailles for that Purpoſe on the 22d Inſtant.

Rotterdam, Aug. 24. The French have bought two Fiſhing Boats, which are exactly of the ſame Make as the Scheveling Boats. They ſailed out of the Maeſe the 23d of this Month, and are intended to be fitted out as Privateers. Theſe Veſſels are likely to be very dangerous by their deceitful Appearance; two Engliſh Ships having been lately ſurprized by Dutch Fiſhing Boats with French Commiſſions.

Whitehall, Auguſt 28.

The King has been pleaſed to appoint Sir Mathew Lamb, Baronet, to be Cuſtos Rotulorum for the Liberty of Peterborough in the County of Northampton, in the room of William Earl Fitzwilliam, deceaſed.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, Aug. 25, 1756.

The Court goes into Mourning on Sunday next, the 29th Inſtant, for the late Dutcheſs of Saxe Hildbourghauſen, Siſter to the King of Denmark, viz.

The Men to wear Black full trimmed with coloured Swords and Buckles.

The Ladies to wear black Silk or Velvet and black Ribbands.

War Office, Auguſt 24, 1756.

The King having appointed the following Gentlemen to be Officers in the Battalions to be forthwith raiſed and added to the Regiments hereafter mentioned, It is His Majeſty's Pleaſure that they do repair with the utmoſt Expedition to the reſpective Places undermentioned, unleſs they are commanded elſewhere by their Superior Officer.
